CHICAGO—A majority of Illinois' metropolitan (metro) areas experienced increases in their over-the-year unemployment rate and half of the metro areas had increases in nonfarm jobs, according to preliminary data released today by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) and the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES).

"While some metro areas saw job growth, too many didn't," said IDES Director Jeff Mays. "Key structural reforms can help the state grow more jobs as we sharpen our efforts to help unemployed job-seekers get back to work."

Illinois businesses added jobs in seven metro areas, in which the largest increases were seen in: Lake-Kenosha (+2.2 percent, +9,000), Rockford (+1.6 percent, +2,400), and Elgin (+1.2 percent, +3,000). Total nonfarm jobs in the Chicago-Naperville-Arlington Heights Metro Division increased (+1.3 percent or +45,900). Illinois businesses lost jobs in seven metro areas including Bloomington (-2.9 percent, -2,800), Carbondale-Marion (-1.6 percent, -900), and the Quad Cities (-1.5 percent, -2,700). The industry sectors recording job growth in the majority of metro areas were: Education and Health Services (12 of 14), Retail Trade (10 of 14), Leisure and Hospitality (nine of 14), and Transportation, Warehousing, and Utilities (eight of 14).

Not seasonally adjusted data compares May 2016 with May 2015. The not seasonally adjusted Illinois rate was 5.6 percent in May 2016 and stood at 12.2 percent at its peak in this economic cycle in January 2010. Nationally, the not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 4.5 percent in May 2016 and 10.6 percent in January 2010 at its peak. The unemployment rate identifies those who are out of work and looking for work, and is not tied to collecting unemployment insurance benefits.

Metro East Highlights

Help Wanted

Area employers advertised for 4,700 openings in May and approximately 84 percent sought full-time employment, according to Help Wanted OnLine data compiled by the Conference Board. It is a global, independent business membership and research association. Employers actually need more workers than the help wanted ad indicates because some industries, such as construction, typically do not advertise job openings.

The May 2016 unemployment rate for the Illinois Section of the St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area was 5.8 percent, an increase of +0.2 from the May 2015 rate of 5.6 percent. The data is not seasonally adjusted.

The number of employed individuals increased by 4,131 to 328,651 in May 2016 from 324,520 in May 2015. The labor force increased by 5,101 to 348,883 in May 2016 from 343,782 in May 2015. In May 2016, there were 20,232 unemployed people in the labor force. This is an increase of 970 compared to the May 2015 total unemployed, 19,262.

Over the year, nonfarm payrolls increased by (+1,100). Employment increased in Retail Trade (+1,100), Transportation, Warehousing and Utilities (+400), Educational and Health Services (+400), Professional and Business Services (+300), Other Services (+200), Leisure and Hospitality (+100), and Information (+100).

Manufacturing (-1,200), Government (-100), Mining and Construction (-100), and Financial Activities (-100) posted job losses while Wholesale Trade showed no change.

Note:

- Monthly 2015 unemployment rates and total non-farm jobs for Illinois metro areas were revised in February 2016, as required by the U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). Comments and tables distributed for prior metro area news releases should be discarded as any records or historical analysis previously cited may no longer be valid.
